

WILLS, TRUSTS AND ESTATE PLANNING

Offered Through EdAdvance Adult Education

Minimize estate taxes, protect assets from Medicaid, preserve IRA funds, provide for disabled family members, and protect your estate from your children's creditors. Plan and protect! Upon successful completion of the course, you will be able to: Understand how a proper estate plan can avoid probate, protect assets and minimize taxes. Topics to be covered, but are not limited to: Wills, Revocable Living Trusts, Irrevocable Trusts, IRA Trusts, Special Needs Trusts, Testamentary Trusts, and Beneficiary Designations. Presented by Elder Law & Estate Planning Attorneys Thomas E. Murphy and Michele F. Murphy of Danbury.

Wednesday, March 22, 2017 from 6:30-8:00 PM.

Kindly hosted at The Village At Brookfield Common, 246A Federal Road in Brookfield.

One session. Ninety minutes $ 25

To register for this Elder Law Presentation:

http://reg.educationconnection.org/registration/htdocs/index.php/activity_registration