Elder Law Roundtable:

How Trusts Protect You And Keep You in Control

Protect your assets, avoid probate and taxes, and preserve your quality of life.

Learn how Trusts can protect your lifestyle and your finances even if your assets are modest.

Avoid running out of funds and being financially forced into a nursing home.

Come hear a discussion on the urgent questions facing every senior today:

- Which trusts protect assets from long term care?
- What are the pros and cons of "avoiding" Probate?
- Is a Revocable Living Trust or Irrevocable Trust better for me?
- How do Trusts protect assets if a child of mine gets divorced or sued?

Concerned about a large future spend-down? Come learn how to use Trusts to avoid the cost of long term care, and reduce estate and capital gains taxes, while protecting your assets.

Trusts Keep You in Control.

You don't have to choose between protecting assets and keeping them under your control. Trusts give you protection and control. You say what goes in, what comes out, and who does what. Danbury attorneys Thomas E. Murphy and Michele F. Murphy have been practicing Elder Law, Estate Planning and Probate law for over 50 years combined. Let them show you the safe way to protect your life's savings!

Learn how to protect yourself and your finances.
