

Elder Law and Home Care Seminar:

Making Aging at Home Sustainable

Preserve your financial security and options for lifelong care!

Presented by:

Elder Law Attorneys Tom Murphy and Michele Murphy, RN, MSN;
Karen Klein, Community Outreach Specialist, Griswold Home Care

Learn how to sustain your and your loved ones' independence.

Valuable benefits can enable care options and help you avoid running out of funds. Elder Law attorneys Thomas E. Murphy and Michele F. Murphy, R.N., M.S.N. of Danbury will address using trusts and other plans to qualify for:

- VA Aid & Attendance cash pension up to $2,169/month;
- CT Pilot Program benefits to pay toward assisted living;
- Medicaid (Title XIX) home care (hourly or live-in); and
- Tax deduction of care costs by higher-income family member.

For over 50 years combined, Attorneys Tom and Michele Murphy have helped seniors avoid long-term care costs. With Tom's executive experience (B.S. Univ. of Penn. Wharton School) and Michele's nursing background (B.S.N. Univ. of Penn.; M.S.N. Yale Univ.), they assess each client's needs and holistically customize the best plan to preserve your lifestyle. They both also are accredited VA attorneys.

Karen Klein will present home care options to sustain aging at home.

Karen Klein is the Community Outreach Specialist at Griswold Home Care, trusted home care providers since 1991. She will discuss individualized home care planning and building robust caregiving resources.
